

Volunteer Crisis Support Team Members

MOSAIC is a charity based in Wellington that works with Male Survivors of Sexual Abuse.

We are looking for volunteers, to take calls 24/7 from people who want to know about our services. You don't need to have completed training as a trained counsellor, social worker, therapist or psychologist, but anyone working in those professions would be very welcome.

The people who approach us for support, and their whanau, are very diverse. We are a bicultural organisation that is treaty based. We would love to hear from any Maori interested in working with us. As well, we are an ethnically and sexually diverse organisation looking for people from all cultures, sexual orientation and gender identification.

You would have:

- An aptitude for caring for others.
- The ability to deal with hearing distressing stories.
- Good support available in your own life.
- Compassion, common sense and commitment.

You would need to:

- Commit to at least 1 night a week a week.
- Comply with Police vetting
- Attend training and supervision
- Aged 18+

You will receive:

- Full training
- Supervision
- Volunteer related expenses
- A space to deal with any issues that may come up for you from time to time.

Our services are...

- Individual private peer support one-to-one meetings
- Regular peer support group meetings throughout the Wellington region
- Online peer support, both one-to-one and group
- Couples and partners support
- Family and Whanau support meetings
- Advocacy and support w Police and ACC etc.
- Referral to counsellor or therapist
- Referrals to other agencies where needed
- Structured therapist-led group workshops

If you have an interest in helping guys who need help in dealing with this trauma, we would like to hear from you.
